

celebrate the dream

Where Do We Go from Here?
Building on the Legacy of Dr. King

Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Week
January 15-23, 2010

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
EVENT AT THE KELVIN SMITH LIBRARY

A Word, A Song

A tribute to Martin Luther King, Jr. and Mahalia Jackson presented by Pickett Line Productions

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 2010

12:00 NOON - 1:30 PM

DAMPEER ROOM, 2ND FLOOR

Prester and Gloria Lee Pickett of Pickett Line Productions will be presenting a tribute in word and song to honor Martin Luther King, Jr. and Mahalia Jackson. Pickett Line Productions is based in Cleveland and specializes in projecting “Edutainment” projects that address culturally specific concerns in cooperation with particular goals of various agencies, organizations, groups, or institutions. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett have performed for many local and national institutions, colleges and universities and in Milan, Italy. Mr. Pickett is an alumnus of Case Western Reserve University, having earned an M.F.A. in Acting.

A light lunch will be served. Contact Susie Hanson at 368-0189 or Earnestine Adeyemon at 368-4248 for more info.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THIS INSPIRING PRESENTATION